

Patrice Landrein appointed General Manager of Royal Palm Beachcomber Luxury

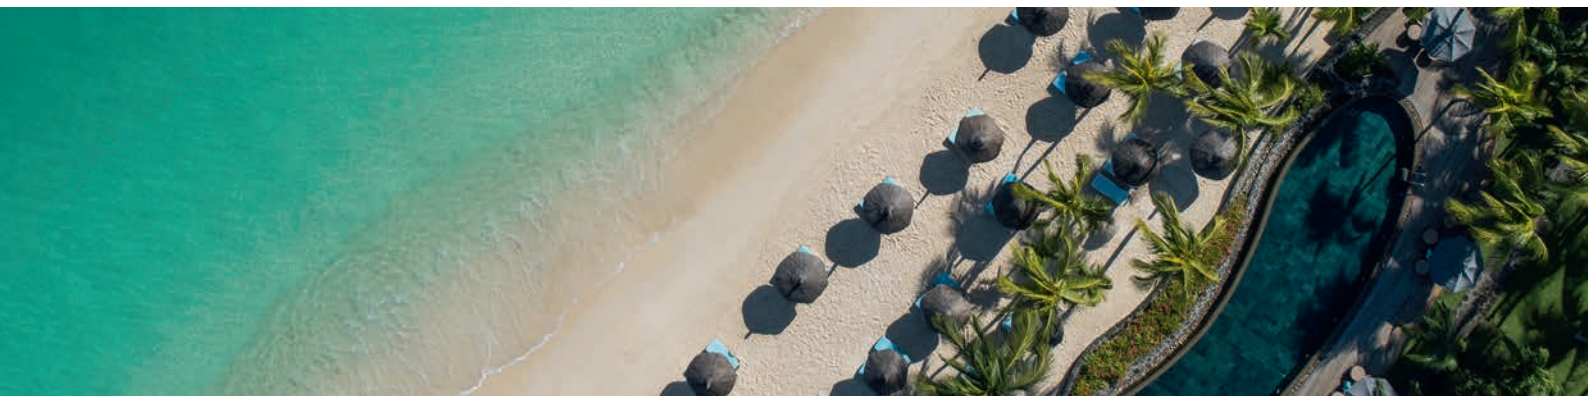

Beachcomber Resorts & Hotels is pleased to announce the appointment of Patrice Landrein as General Manager of Royal Palm Beachcomber Luxury, taking over from Isabelle Bouvier, who successfully led this iconic Mauritian hotel over the past three years. He assumed his new role on 3 October 2024.

With nearly 30 years of experience in international luxury hospitality, Patrice Landrein, a French hotelier has distinguished himself in Parisian palaces such as Ritz Paris and Hôtel de Crillon. His career has also taken him to renowned hotels such as The Savoy in London, the Plaza Athénée in New York, as well as some of Asia's most prestigious establishments.

Patrice Landrein, a hotel management graduate, initially started his career as a trainee receptionist and steadily advanced to manage several prestigious hotels in Europe and Asia. At the age of 26 years, he joined the management team of Manapany, a five-star hotel in St. Barth, in the Caribbean. In 2013, he embarked on a new chapter in Asia, notably in Vietnam and Thailand. Until recently, he was the General Manager of Pimalai Resort & Spa on the iconic island of Koh Lanta, elevating the property to the rank of Thailand's best luxury hotel and among the world's top 10, according to TripAdvisor.

A committed advocate of sustainable development, Patrice Landrein spearheaded the Green Globe certification of Pimalai Resort & Spa and launched an ambitious coral conservation programme. His remarkable journey has now brought him to the helm of Royal Palm, a member of The Leading Hotels of the World and a flagship of luxury hospitality in Mauritius. "I am extremely honoured to join the Royal Palm, an iconic property globally renowned for its excellence. I am thrilled to work alongside the Artisans to offer exceptional Guest Experience," he said.

Renowned for his visionary leadership and commitment to delivering exceptional guest experiences, the new General Manager is poised to bring innovative perspectives to this legendary address. His dedication to excellence and sustainable luxury will enable Royal Palm to reach new heights, ensuring even more memorable stays for its Guests.

Jean-Louis Pismont, Chief Operations Officer of Beachcomber Resorts & Hotels, adds: "Beyond his remarkable career in luxury hospitality, Patrice Landrein stands out for his exceptional human qualities and his ability to unite and develop talent within teams – values that are dear to us at Beachcomber Group. We are honoured to welcome him as General Manager of Royal Palm, a crown jewel of Mauritian hospitality. I would also like to thank Isabelle Bouvier for her leadership and outstanding contribution to the prestige of Royal Palm."

ABOUT ROYAL PALM BEACHCOMBER LUXURY

The iconic Royal Palm Beachcomber Luxury is set along a strip of fine white sand in Grand Baie, on the North coast of Mauritius. It is a legendary hotel and a sophisticated lifestyle destination that leaves an indelible mark on Guests. This legendary hotel with a personal touch caters to your every wish: every detail is thoughtfully crafted with ever attentive and discreet personnel ready to meet your needs, whether under the shade of a beach hut, by the pool or on the terrace of a suite. Every experience, every setting, every moment spent in this grand 'Maison' exudes elegance, making each stay a profound sensory experience.

This flagship of the Mauritian hotel industry has been a member of The Leading Hotels of the World since its early days, consistently redefining the essence of "hospitality" in its most authentic and extraordinary form. The art of welcoming Guests is at the core of Royal Palm's philosophy, with collaborations involving some of the most famous names in haute cuisine to fully embody its values. Combining epicurean delight with refinement and creativity, it has hosted chefs from around the world for unique culinary festivals showcasing Indian, Thai and South African cuisines.