

Royal Palm Beachcomber Luxury
Head Concierge Vijay Huradon admitted to Les Clefs d'Or

Royal Palm Beachcomber Luxury's Senior Head Concierge, Vijay Huradon has been inducted into the highly prestigious global association of elite hotel concierges, Les Clefs d'Or. He has been recognised by his peers for his 27-year career marked by exceptional attention to detail, a commitment to service excellence, constant availability and outstanding dedication. The Les Clefs d'Or award ceremony took place at Royal Palm on Monday 15 April 2024.

Vijay began his professional journey at Royal Palm in 1998 as a Valet before joining the Concierge team. Now aged 46, he has risen through the ranks from Assistant Baggage Handler to Head Baggage Handler, Concierge and Senior Head Concierge at this member property of The Leading Hotels of the World.

"I am happy and immensely proud to be part of Les Clefs d'Or, which is a wonderful recognition of excellence. Wearing these two crossed golden keys on the lapel of my uniform is the culmination of a long journey and the ultimate achievement for all members of the Concierge community. I sincerely thank Royal Palm's General Manager, Isabelle Bouvier, for her mentorship, attention and advice. She believed in me and strongly encouraged me to become a member of Les Clefs d'Or," says Royal Palm's Senior Head Concierge, who has joined the elite of the concierge world.

This professional association of hotel concierges was founded in France in 1929 and comprises some 4,000 members working in elite hotels in over 80 countries around the globe. The Les Clefs d'Or Concierge is the keystone of personalised service in a luxury hotel.

ABOUT ROYAL PALM BEACHCOMBER LUXURY

Royal Palm Beachcomber Luxury is a legendary hotel located in Grand Baie, on the north coast of Mauritius. This iconic property with a human touch is a 'Maison' in the finest sense of the word, representing the perfect blend of timeless elegance, excellence and refinement. The first hotel on the island to join The Leading Hotels of the World, this crown jewel of the hotel industry in Mauritius has hosted Heads of State on official visits to the island and celebrities on holiday since its opening in 1985.

The service is always impeccable, with an ever-attentive and discreet personnel anticipating every guest's wish. The cuisine lives up to the standards of this one-of-a-kind hotel in the world, whether under the shade of a Badamier tree at La Plage Restaurant or on the terrace of the main restaurant, La Goélette.
