

In November, Beachcomber celebrates Mauritian heritage with its Rum Fest Beachcomber 2024!

From 14 to 22 November, Beachcomber hotels will offer guests a special festive interlude with local flair: a travelling Rum Festival, created in partnership with RumFest Ltd., taking place across its eight resorts around the island.

The story of Mauritian rum, intertwined with that of sugar, is inextricably linked to the history of Mauritius. The production of sugar cane-based alcohol dates back more than 350 years, to around 1630. This centuries-old craft has earned Mauritian rum worldwide recognition, with local distilleries garnering numerous accolades at prestigious international competitions.

In honour of this rich cultural and culinary heritage, Beachcomber invites guests to experience Mauritian rum in all its dimensions during its week-long Rum Fest Beachcomber 2024. In addition to meetings with local producers to learn more about their expertise, with presentations and tastings of their rums, this discovery week will include special rum and food pairing dinners in each hotel, and bottles will be available for sale in Beachcomber boutiques.

Throughout the month, guests at Beachcomber hotels will also enjoy discovering nine exclusive rum-based cocktails, crafted especially for the occasion in collaboration with the island's finest distilleries and producers. The Chamarel Old Fashioned, Pigeon Punch, Karo Kann Confit, Lazy Fruit Daiquiri, Gold Fashioned, Oaks & Ames Negroni, Exotique, Beach Mojito, and Trip to Saint-Aubin will awaken the palates of rum enthusiasts and novices alike.

Rum Week: A marathon of flavours

The week's highlight is a series of exclusive rum-pairing dinners, each hosted at a different Beachcomber property - according to the schedule below. They will celebrate a distillery's products while offering a panorama of their unique flavours.

These dinners include an aperitif, starter, main course, dessert, and digestif. During these evenings, guests can look forward to Beachcomber Resorts & Hotels' signature sega show, Wild Island, which is set to take place at each of its hotels.

This week-long celebration of rum reflects Beachcomber's deep connection to Mauritian heritage. Through this festival, the group continues its mission of both preserving and sharing the island's rich cultural traditions with visitors from around the world.
