

Mauricia Beachcomber wishes you a warm welcome!

Making the most of the gentle weather, just before the warmer season returns, Mauricia Beachcomber Resort & Spa has given its reception area a stylish makeover that perfectly captures the authentic Mauritian hospitality.

Following a two-week renovation from 7 to 21 September 2025, Mauricia Beachcomber Resort & Spa has reopened with a brand new, modern reception area. The result: a spacious area that highlights the hotel's family-friendly and welcoming atmosphere, where guests can relax and unwind... from the moment they arrive in Mauritius, and throughout their stay!

Your holiday starts as soon as you step into the reception area

This beautifully redesigned space blends tropical elegance with contemporary style, celebrating the very essence of a tropical getaway - true to the Beachcomber group's brand promise.

Step inside and you are instantly transported to a warm, inviting world that feels like your own beachside retreat. Every detail encourages you to unwind from the laid-back rocking chairs to vibrant tropical prints, wave-inspired timber panels behind the desk, and stunning lagoon-blue ceramic tiles that capture the island's natural beauty.
